ieie and the one-being-dead he-shall-become to him

- 31 Whether he have gored a son, or have gored a daughter, according to this judgment shall it be done unto him.
- $^{32}$  If the ox shall push a manservant or a maidservant; he shall give unto their master thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.
- 33 And if a man shall open a pit, or if a man shall dig a pit, and not cover it, and an ox or an ass fall therein;
- 34 The owner of the pit shall make [it] good, [and] give money unto the owner of them; and the dead [beast] shall be his.
- 35 And if one man's ox hurt another's, that he die; then they shall sell the live ox, and divide the money of it; and the dead [ox] also they shall divide.
- <sup>36</sup> Or if it be known that the ox hath used to push in time past, and his owner hath not kept him in; he shall surely pay ox for ox; and the dead shall be his own.
