and he-is-slighted glory-of Moab in all-of the throng the vast and remnant little bit not water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for the shouting for thy summer fruits and for thy harvest is fallen.

- <sup>10</sup> And gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in [their] presses; I have made [their vintage] shouting to cease.
- 11 Wherefore my bowels shall sound like an harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kirharesh.
- 12 And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail.
- <sup>13</sup> This [is] the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab since that
- <sup>14</sup> But now the LORD hath spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of an hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant [shall be] very small [and] feeble.
